EDITORIAL

TIME

Time plays an important role especially in a student's life. Now a days we find many students waste their time in the beginning of Academic year and when exams are nearing they complain that they don't have sufficient time to finish the portions. God has given 24 hours to every one and one should use precious time with great care and achieve the things in life. Time once gone will never comes back. If you want to be a successful student start respecting the time and use it properly
